Supreme Court of the United States.

No. 201.—October Term, 1900.

Thomas F. Farrell et al., Plaintiffs in Error, vs.
The West Chicago Park Commissioners.
} In error to the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois.

[April 29, 1901.]

Mr. Justice Shiras delivered the opinion of the Court.

This case originated in proceedings to create and improve an avenue or thoroughfare known as Douglas boulevard, in the town of West Chicago.

The full history of those proceedings, contained in the statement of facts made by this court in the case of Lombard and others v. The West Chicago Park Commissioners, recently decided, renders it unnecessary to repeat them here. And the legal questions involved were so fully discussed in that case, and in French v. Barber Asphalt Co. and Wight v. Davidson, cognate cases decided at the present term of this court, that we are relieved from their further consideration.

The judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois is Affirmed.
